

European Recovery and American Aid: A Report - U.S. Government Printing Office, 1947 - United States. President's Committee on Foreign Aid - 1947

Obama's first major legislative effort was to enact a recovery program that would stimulate the economy by creating or saving millions of jobs and staunching the bleeding from the recession. Democrats controlled large majorities in both houses of Congress, and they moved quickly to pass a measure that Obama could sign. Legislation was introduced in the U.S. House of Representatives less than a week after Obama assumed office, and on January 28, 2009, the House of Representatives passed its version of the bill, which envisioned an $819 billion package of government spending and tax cuts and was National courts play an important role in the enforcement of recovery decisions adopted by the Commission under Article 14(1) of Council Regulation (EC) No 659/1999.
