Evoking Ella's intoxicating new surroundings while skewering the facile assumptions of "poverty tourism", Barr's second YA novel is a fast-paced, dramatic search for answers to the secrets of the self " Guardian. Colourful setting and pacy plot. If you like dark fiction you'll devour it " Heat. Emily Barr already proved she could hit all the right teen-fiction notes in last year's The One Memory of Flora Banks. This taps the same vein. I agree the love at first sight romance was a bit silly but I thought the portrayal of Ella as a teenager was spot on. Read more. Report abuse.
