The Russian State Specialized Academy of Arts, Institute of Fine Arts, Zhengzhou University and the International Science and Culture Center for Academic Contacts (ISCCAC) are pleased to announce the 2015 International Conference on Arts, Design and Contemporary Education (ICADCE 2015). The conference will be held April 22-24, 2015, in Moscow, Russia. The aim of ICADCE is to provide a common platform for educators, artists, scholars, and students from different cultural backgrounds to present and discuss research, developments and innovations in the fields of Art and Art Education. Please cite Six Hill forts of Rajasthan, namely, Amer Fort, Chittor Fort, Gagron Fort, Jaisalmer Fort, Kumbhalgarh and Ranthambore Fort were included in the UNESCO World Heritage Site list during the 37th meeting of the World Heritage Committee in Phnom Pehn during June 2013. They were recognized as a serial cultural property and examples of Rajput military hill architecture.[3][4][5]. A mausoleum of Sufi Saint Mithe Shah just outside the fort is the venue for an annual colourful fair held during the month of Moharram. There is also a monastery of Saint Pipaji across the confluence.[6]. This paper explores the connection between the requirements of heritage protection of fortifications and the requirements of the application of indoor camping in these fortifications. The purpose of this paper is to help conserve fortifications by providing funding for their maintenance with the application of this innovative accommodation model respecting the principles of sustainability and health and safety standards in post-Covid tourism. The goal is to provide a general framework that could reconcile tourism businesses on one side and conservators on the other.
