Description:

Review 'Real Food' is the most informative, educational, practical, and helpful book I have ever read on home made diets for your animal companions. It offers all the information you need to prepare the healthiest diet possible for your kindred spirits. Follow the directions and you offer your cats and dogs one of the healthiest possible diets. --Allen Schoen MS, DVM Author: Kindred Spirits, How the Remarkable Bond Between Humans and Animals can Change the Way We Live

Use this book to help you implement a phenomenal homemade food program! --Joseph Mercola, founder of mercola.com, most visited natural health site on the web, and founder of mercolahealthypets.com

'Dr. Becker's Real Food for Healthy Dogs and Cats' is one of the most valuable education tools in my veterinary practice. I send the book home and know that my clients have the information and recipes they need to improve the quality of the lives of their furry family members. --Teresa Calvert DVM, CVSMT

About the Author Beth Taylor and Karen Shaw Becker DVM combine their years of experience helping people improve their pet's health with real food. Dr. Becker is a veterinarian, animal acupuncturist and homeopath practicing in Illinois. Natural Pet Animal Hospital focuses on integrative pet care for dogs, cats, birds and exotic animals. She also runs Covenant Wildlife Rehabilitation, a non-profit facility that cares for injured and orphaned Chicago area wildlife. She is the chief veterinarian for mercolahealthypets.com, which provides proactive pet health education for thousands of people and their animals. Beth Taylor, co-author of See Spot Live Longer, helps animal caretakers with food and lifestyle choices. Her interests include Jin Shin Jyutsu, traditional Chinese medicine, massage, and chiropractic. She lectures frequently on proactive health care and pet food topics for dog clubs, veterinary clinics and any group of interested individuals, and teaches evaluation, observation, and massage techniques to small groups and individuals.

Buy Dr. Becker's Real Food for Healthy Dogs and Cats: Simple Homemade Food Third Edition by Beth Taylor and Karen Shaw Becker DVM (ISBN: 9780982533116) from Amazon's Book Store. Everyday low prices and free delivery on eligible orders. Now we wanted to feed them with 100% healthy food as we do ourselves, and Dr Becker's book as we are now reading seems to be the right one for us, we both read it separately and we are now comparing notes and costing out the menu's to see if we can fit it into our budget, or make some small. changes if we can't. The book is well written and explained in a simple way, so is fully understandable. So we gave it a five star rating, as it really a first class way to feed your animals and stretch their life longer by being very healthy Ronnie. I applaud Dr. Becker's efforts but I have several issues with this book. There are numerous typos. This is SERIOUS when talking balanced pet nutrition. They preach throughout the book how you have to follow everything to a tee or else your pets diet will be skewed. In a boneless recipe on page 60 they talk about grinding necks. In each of the vitamin mix recipe for cats and dogs it calls for the same amount of vitamin E capsules, however one lists 120iu and the other lists 1200iu. Upon encountering these mistakes, it made me question everything else that I've read in the book. It drove me NUTS. If anyone has found any other source for balanced recipes for homemade dog food, written by a nutritionist or veterinarian. . .please let me know. I'm desperate to get this right. Read more. If you are looking to migrate from commercial food to real food for your pet this is a must read. Great recipes for home preparation. flag Like see review. Cats are obligate carnivores! However, there is other useful information, such as how much food to feed your pet based on weight as well as general information on transitioning your pet's diet. There is also a section on raw vs. cooked diets. I don't make any of the recipes. I just consult the rest of the book as a reference. Although the recipes they give for cats are more meat-heavy than the dog ones, the doctors still give vegetable recipes for cats, which I question. Cats are obligate carnivores!
