Daily Activities for Family Time Together

by Herbert G. Lingren, Extension Family Scientist

There are many activities a family can do together that will promote family bonding and having fun. Time doing positive things together creates family unity and loyalty, builds self-esteem, and provides family resiliency when a crisis occurs. The following list is a guideline for activities that families might do together on a daily basis. By doing these and other favorite activities daily, the family not only will have fun together, but will broaden its knowledge and perspectives as well. (If you can't visit the Nebraska sites listed here, order information from the <http://www.visitnebraska.org>, Nebraska Tourism Office about other events which may be closer to home and visit them together).

Not just family time, but productive family time. It's so nice to live in a day in age where our lives don't depend on this food gathering, but it's nice to know how, and it feels good to have increased the family bounty together. Swimming has always been one of my favourites. It saved my sanity as a mom when my kids were little, in the summer, to go to the beach, or the lake for the day. As a family we are in almost daily contact by text, email or messenger with photos and comments, even though some live far away. 5.2K views · Answer requested by. Ellen Rardin. My kids are still very young and everything we do is a family activity. They love the quality time together.
