Matthew Henry's Commentary "Verses 1" 21. Resources. Matthew Henry's Commentary. [1.] The duty pressed "to present our bodies a living sacrifice, alluding to the sacrifices under the law, which were presented or set before God at the altar, ready to be offered to him. Your bodies" your whole selves; so expressed because under the law the bodies of beasts were offered in sacrifice, 1 Cor. 6:20. Our bodies and spirits are intended. The offering was sacrificed by the priest, but presented by the offerer, who transferred to God all his right, title, and interest in it, by laying his hand on the head of it. Sacrifice is here taken for whatsoever is by God's own appointment dedica It is an expository commentary looking at nearly every verse. Each chapter is summed up. Something is said about nearly all the contents of the Bible. But it knows nothing about textual concerns like the Nag Hammadi, Ugarit, or Dead Sea discoveries. It is inexpensive and available - even online. But it is woefully out of date. 45 views · View upvotes. 1. Related Questions. This work is a one-volume abridgement of Henry's greatest work, so the text is less cumbersome than that of the original publication; yet it might still require a little patience
