If I Were a Book

By: Jose Jorge Letria and Illustrated By: Andre Letria

If I were a book, I’d contain poems that light up the night.

If I were a book, I’d share my deepest secrets with my readers.

If I were a book, I’d capture you with my captivating tales.

If I were a book, I’d keep all the secrets confided to me by my readers.

If I were a book, I’d be happy to wind up on a desert island with a passionate reader.

If I were a book, I’d be an endless journey.

You will create a line of 10 statements starting with, “If I were a _______.”

These statements will be typed (no more than 1 page)

A minimum of 4 illustrations must be drawn on your sheet (this portion will be done on Monday; I will print out your sheet after you share it with me).

Your parent signature is due on Wednesday: ______________________

Your final product will be displayed on your locker.
This week has been a hard one. You must be living under a rock or completely oblivious if you're not in need of a little positivity right now. I have to say that I've been completely unmotivated to do anything this week, and although I don't like to discuss politics on my blog, watching the behavior of some of my fellow Americans has been anything but a pleasurable experience. It's been such a hard, hard week for everyone, and (assuming you are American) no matter who you voted for, some... Mood Quotes Poetry Quotes Positive Quotes Motivational Quotes Life Quotes.
