Featuring the true stories of 35 women creators, ranging from writers to inventors, artists to scientists, Little Dreamers: Visionary Women Around the World inspires as it educates. Readers will meet trailblazing women like Mary Blair, an American modernist painter who had a major influence on how color was used in early animated films, actor/inventor Hedy Lamarr, environmental activist Wangari Maathai, architect Zaha Hadid, filmmaker Maya Deren, and physicist Chien-Shiung Wu. Some names are known, some are not, but all of the women had a lasting effect on the fields they worked in. The Little Dreamers are here to guide you on this journey around the world, through space and time. Let them inspire your future! EDUCATIONAL PHILOANTHROPIST. Her talents took her outside of the film world as well: She penned two books on fashion and costume in Hollywood and designed uniforms for women in the US Coast Guard, leaving her mark on history beyond the silver screen. Art collector, philanthropist. USA, Italy. Probably a good book but I didn't recognize any of the women leaders in this book except for a few. Would have been helpful if they posted the name of the leaders before purchasing so I didn't have to go through the return process. Going to return and order Herstory which is also about women leaders but more of the well known ones discussed in school and it shows pics of the actual women.
