The program ran intermittently from 1945 until 1966. The first six houses were built by 1948 and attracted more than 350,000 visitors. While not all 36 designs were built, most of those that were constructed were built in Los Angeles, and one was built in San Rafael, Northern California and one in Phoenix, Arizona. Of the unbuilt houses, #19 was to have been built in Atherton, in the San Francisco Bay Area, while #27 was to have been built on the east coast, in Smoke Rise, New Jersey. Case Study Houses: The Complete CSH Program,. Taschen. ISBN 978-3822864128. Between 1945 and 1966, the Case Study Houses program, following the WeiĂŸenhof-siedlung exposition, commissioned a study of economic, easy-to-build houses. The study included the creation of 36 prototypes that were to be built leading up to post-war residential development.Â Arts & Architectureâ€™s Case Study House program was supposed to be about creating replicable, affordable designs for post-war livingâ€“stylish but modest homes for young families on a budget. And then came house #17(2). To be fair, this house was designed for real clients, with specific and ambitious requirements. The Hoffmans had four children, a household staff, and an art collection. So this was never going to be just another suburban three-bedroom. 9 THE CASE STUDY HOUSE PROGRAM 1945-1966 From Ray and Charles Eames and Pierre Koenigâ€™s legendary light The popular trend in line with the Bauhaus concept also went for steel constructions to the visionary villas of John Lautner and the open living space and functional structures. first daring architectural projects of Frank O. The Case Study House program (1945-1966) was an exceptional, innovative event in the history of American architecture and remains to this day unique. The program, which concentrated on the Los Angeles area and oversaw the design of 36 prototype homes, sought to make available plans for modern residences that could be easily and cheaply constructed during the postwar building boom. The program's chief motivating force was Arts & Architecture editor John Entenza, a champion of modernism who had all the right connections to attract some of architecture's greatest talents, such as Richard Neutra, who designed many of the homes.
