

The Baby Swap

By Jan Ormerod

Little Simon. Hardcover. Condition: New. Andrew Joyner (illustrator). 32 pages. Dimensions: 0.0in. x 0.0in. x 0.0in. A jealous big sister learns a very loving lesson in this warm and funny picture book about sibling rivalry, featuring charming text and retro-nostalgic artwork. Caroline Crocodile is not thrilled with her baby brother. He drools. A lot. But all Mama Crocodile ever says is how GORGEOUS he is! And so Caroline ventures into a baby shop to swap out her brother. Unfortunately, the baby panda is a fussy eater, the giraffe is missing scales, and the piglet isn't green. Turns out, the best younger sibling around might just be her own yellow-eyed, sharp-clawed, drooling baby brother. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Hardcover.

Contact the hospital where you'll give birth ahead of time and ask them specific questions about the measures they take to prevent an accidental baby swap. It's your baby, and you have a right to ask this important question! Next, be vigilant about your baby's whereabouts when you are in the hospital. Many mothers today refuse to even let their babies out of their sight during their stay. Check your baby's identification tags whenever you are with them and definitely before you leave the hospital. Both babies had been treated in the same incubator and were then given to the wrong parents. Although the error was discovered 10 years ago, neither family has wanted to swap the girls back. On Tuesday, the court in Grasse, southern France, ordered the clinic in Cannes to pay €400,000 to each of the girls. Three parents concerned were awarded €300,000 and the clinic must pay €60,000 each to three siblings.
