The focus of this book is on songwriting and songwriters but it is much more than that. It is a record of creativity, of how these people see the source of their "discoveries". Mr. Zollo asks all the right questions. If you're interested in songwriting or the motivation behind songwriters, this is a great book. So far a couple of the sections I've read were about Paul Simon and Jackson Browne, two of my favorite songwriters. The articles were interesting and captivating. The classic collection of candid interviews with the greatest songwriters of our time, including Bob Dylan, Brian Wilson, Patti Smith, Paul Simon, Tom Petty, and dozens more This expanded fourth edition of Songwriters on Songwriting includes ten new interviews--with Alanis Morissette, Lenny Kravitz, Lou Reed, and others. In these pages, sixty-two of the greatest songwriters of our time go straight to the source of the magic of songwriting by offering their thoughts, feelings, and opinions on their art. Representing almost every genre of popular music, from blues to pop to rock, here are the figures that have shaped American music as we know it.
